FIGHTING BATHES RHINELAND IN BLOOD

130 SEPARATISTS REPORTED KILLED IN THE LAST WEEK

70 KILLED IN ONE BATTLE BETWEEN SEPARATISTS AND LOYALISTS

DELAY IN REPORTS FROM BATTLE AREA DUE TO CUTTING OFF COMMUNICATION

(By United Press)
Berlin, Nov. 21.—Terrific fighting in the Rhineland in which more than 130 separatists were killed in the last week, was reported in delayed dispatches today from Cologne.

Seventy were reported killed in one battle between separatists and citizens loyal to the German Reich near Aegidienberg.

Serious fighting was also reported in the Sieben Geberge district.

Six more separatists were reported beaten to death by peasants near the town of Honnef where fighting was reported Saturday.

They were dragged from automobiles, it was reported.

Delay in revelation of the fighting was explained by the fact that the district is almost entirely cut off from communication with the outside world.

Honnef was reported freed from separatists following action of the French authorities in disarming many of them.

Heavy fighting was said to be going on in Koenigswinter. In a battle in Hoevel, peasants surrounded thirty separatists and killed 23 of them, it was reported.

Citizens were said to have hastily organized defense groups who were using every means to drive the separatists out of the Rhineland.

In unemployment riots in Silesia reports today said two were killed in Lignitz in fighting in which police for a time were held powerless. The unemployed were reported plundering in many places.

GERMANY'S DESPERATE FOOD SITUATION

Berlin, Nov. 21.—A small ray of hope in Germany's desperate food situation was seen today when the government verified reports that Chancellor Stresemann had gone to Holland to negotiate food credits amounting to $15,000,000.

It was reported the Chancellor was to meet the Dutch bankers Van Aalst and Prins Vissering of the Holland state bank as well as representatives of England and American financial groups.

JOINT ALLIED NOTE GETS REVISION

London, Nov. 21.—The proposed joint allied note to Germany regarding the re-imposition of allied military control has been sent back to Paris with several alternative suggestions regarding phraseology, the United Press was informed in reliable quarters today.

There was strong hope in official quarters that some of these suggestions would be acceptable to France and that the Anglo-French entente would thus be preserved.

DEBT REMINDER MAY BE GIVEN TO FRANCE

Paris, Nov. 21.—If Senator Smoot's proposal for a debt reminder to France were adopted, it would still find Premier Poincare of France determined to postpone payments until France collects from Germany, it was learned here today.

The Premier would be willing to send a commission to the United States to explain why France cannot pay until her devastated areas have been cared for and her reparations received, it was said.

AMBASSADORS' CONFERENCE

Paris, Nov. 21.—The ambassador's conference was summoned to meet at 5 p. m. today to hear the British views on the proposed note to Germany demanding re-imposition of allied control of her military forces.

TRAIN TOO SLOW; PLANE USED TO REACH DEATHBED

Parsons, Kan., Nov. 21.—J. T. Hobson, Dallas, Texas, is at the bedside of his father, critically ill with pneumonia, in Paola, Kan., after a race with death in an airplane over the 460 miles he traveled from Dallas to Paola.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Hobson was notified of his father's illness. "He'll be dead before morning," a telegram stated. By rail it would have taken until 11 o'clock today to reach Paola, but by air he made the 460 miles in 7 hours and 22 minutes.

GIRL RESISTED MAN AND IS SHOT

OWATONNA MARRIED MAN
DENIES IT

(By United Press)
Owatonna, Minn., Nov. 21.—Esther Abbe today told police that Joseph Cieziński shot her early today after taking her home.

Police held Cieziński who is married and the father of five children. He denied any knowledge of the shooting.

Both are employed in the Twin Falls Nursery and were working overtime last night. Cieziński admitted taking the girl home. Miss Abbe whose wounds are not serious, told police the man made advances which she repulsed. He then shot her, she said.

Cieziński was roused from his bed by police and is being questioned today.

COTTON REPORT AS MADE BY GOVERNMENT

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 21.—Cotton ginned to November 14th from the crop of 1923 totaled 8,368,683 running bales, counting round as bales, the census bureau reported today, as compared with 8,869,978 bales of the 1922 crop.

Round bales included in the ginning from the 1923 crop totaled 212,883 as compared with 151,534 in 1922.

American Egyptian totaled 13,084 as against 17,715 for 1922. Sea Island totaled 654 as compared with 4,707 for 1922.

Crewe from the British government arrived early today. The conference had been postponed twice to await them after France had requested certain "minor modifications" in the note as drafted.

AUSTRIAN CHANCELLOR SUBMITS RESIGNATION

Paris, Nov. 21.—Chancellor Seipel of Austria has resigned, dispatches said today. His cabinet will continue in office temporarily.

CLAIM AGREEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED

Paris, Nov. 21.—The conference of ambassadors reached an agreement late this afternoon on the proposed note to Germany demanding re-imposition of allied control of German military preparation. The agreement meant the Anglo-French entente at least outwardly would survive another crisis.

It was reached when some of the alternative suggestions made by Great Britain for the terms of the note were found acceptable to Jules Cambon, representing Premier Poincare at the conference.

The instructions of the British ambassador arrived from London shortly after noon today and the conference after having been postponed twice for lack of them was convoked for 5 p. m.

CHARGES STOCK SOLD ILLEGALLY IN MINNESOTA

CLAIMS HALF MILLION DOLLARS
STOCK OF 2 CONCERNS HIT
BLUE SKY LAW

FRED C. LINDT MAKES ALLEGATIONS AGAINST TWO SOUTH DAKOTA CORPORATIONS

(By United Press)
St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 21.—Charging that probably half a million dollars worth of stocks was sold in Minnesota illegally, Fred C. Lindt today filed a complaint under the blue sky laws against the Grain Growers Association, Inc., of South Dakota and Circle N-X Ranch, of South Dakota.

A warrant was issued for E. C. Cooper, stock salesman, and Sheriff D. E. Schoener of Stearns county went to Minneapolis at noon to search for Cooper.

Lindt, superintendent of the Great Northern shops here charged in his complaint filed with Judge J. R. Donohue in municipal court that the grain company and ranch outfit sold the stock illegally in Minnesota, neither having secured license under the blue sky laws.

The stock, he alleged, is worthless and asked the court to order an investigation.

At least 10,000 shares of stock was sold in St. Cloud and vicinity, he said. He estimated probably $500,000 worth of stock was sold in Minnesota. He personally held fifty shares of ranch stock at $10 a share and 40 shares of grain growers stock at $10 each, he said.

E. C. Cooper as salesman for both concerns misrepresented the stock, Lindt alleged. Stockholders here held a meeting at which an investigation was demanded, he said.

RAMIFICATIONS OF ALLEGED STOCK FRAUDS

Minneapolis, Nov. 21.—Two big alleged stock frauds were revealed today by the state securities commission.

Minnesota people in the last three years have contributed close to a million dollars to alleged fraudulent stock salesmen, it was charged.

Five men were arrested here and a complaint was lodged against others at St. Cloud on two fraud schemes.

Members of the Securities commission said operations of the two outfits cover a dozen midwest states. Some of the quintet arrested here are wanted in Kansas City and Peoria, Illinois. All five men held were stock salesmen for Raymond and company, brokers with offices in the Palace building. Two stenographers were also taken from the office and questioned by County Attorney Floyd B. Olson. They will be material witnesses.

The salesmen attempted to sell $2,000 worth of stock in the Buick carburetor company to Ernest Braunig and after paying down $1,000 he became suspicious. They wanted $10 a share for the stock, and he learned that it was quoted on the market at 90c. He asked the state securities commission to investigate and a raid was made at noon.

The firm had been in operation only a little more than a month. The five men gave their names as Guy Phillips, 22; George Ford, 26; James Goldberg, 25; Carl Wester, 18; and Lee S. Gordon, 25. The girls gave their names as Ann Rigler and Belle Johnson.

The same persons are said to have operated under the name of Richman and Company in Peoria, Illinois, and as S. A. Peabody and Company in Kansas City where they are wanted.

While police were raiding the Raymond place, Sheriff B. E. Schoener of St. Cloud was en route here with a warrant for the arrest of E. C. Cooper, alleged to have peddled $5,900 worth of worthless stocks in St. Cloud without a license. He sold stock in

ONLY 13 PRESENT AT PARTY FOR DEBT-FREE; THEY GIVE FORMULÆ

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 21.—Keeping out of debt is an easy task, according to 13 men, the only men in all of Greene county, Georgia, who were honored guests at an unusual celebration recently at Penfield.

The 13 men, explaining their feat of being debt-free, each gave a different recipe. "I never got married," one explained. "I worked day and night and never spent a penny until I earned it," said another. "I gave the Lord His tenth," according to a third.

The 13 men were the only ones responding to an invitation to a barbecue to every debt-free man in Greene county. Even the host A. J. Boswell, who annually treats his friends to a barbecue—was not privileged to sit with the 13.

The majority of those without financial obligations were farmers, but a minister and a justice of the peace also were present. Not one of the 13 is wealthy.

Absconder, Missing 30 Years, Plans Return If U. S. Will Drop Case

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 21.—Thirty years from the time Miller B. Curtis, cashier of the American National bank, disappeared, after an alleged shortage of $12,000 was discovered in his accounts, "feelers" reached federal authorities here on whether he would be prosecuted if he returned.

When last heard of Curtis was in Argentina.

C. C. Madison, United States district attorney, to whom friends of Curtis made presentations for his return, has placed the matter before Attorney General H. M. Daugherty. It depends on Daugherty's ruling whether Curtis will be prosecuted should he come home.

"SLUSH FUND" MAY HAVE AIDED QUACKS

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 21.—Investigation to ascertain whether a "slush fund" was planned to be used in securing passage of legislation which would make it easier for "quack doctors" to operate in Connecticut will be undertaken by the grand jury.

the grain growers association incorporated of South Dakota and the Circle N-X ranch in South Dakota, it is alleged.

Stockholders here estimated that probably half a million dollars worth of stock in these two concerns were sold in Minnesota within the last three years.

Persons who bought stock in the grain growers association said dividends amounting to thirty and forty cents a month were paid at first and they believed the investment a success. Then later the dividends failed. In the meantime, however, the same persons organized Circle N-X ranch and sold huge blocks of stock. A ten per cent initial dividend was paid in cash instead of by check and the suspicions of some stockholders were aroused. Investigation proved the ranch had been sold to satisfy a lien of $2,500, it is alleged. The organizers of the two concerns are reported to have established headquarters in Melville, Montana, after closing out in South Dakota and relinquishing their license to sell stock in Minnesota.

Cooper, however, is alleged to have sold stock after the license was relinquished and he is sought on a warrant charging him with safe without license.

Criminal charges will be brought against the persons involved in the deal if they can be found.

Fred Lindt, superintendent of the Great Northern shops at St. Cloud, filed a complaint with Judge J. R. Donohue in municipal court setting forth Cooper's operations. He was one of the victims.

RUM RUNNERS GET READY FOR A BIG HOLIDAY BUSINESS

SEVEN BOATS LAND CARGOES OF
BOTTLED HOLIDAY CHEER ON
NEW JERSEY COAST

THE BOTTLE FISHERMEN FROM
POINTS ALONG LONG ISLAND
SHORES GET BUSY

Highlands, N. J., Nov. 21.—Seven speedy rum runners landed cargoes of bottled holiday cheer at towns along the New Jersey coast last night, but two others were chased by coast guards and were forced to jettison part of their loads.

ROW OPENS ITS PRE-HOLIDAY SALE

Highlands, N. J., Nov. 21.—Rum row today opened its pre-holiday sale.

At sundown more than a dozen bottle fishermen from points along the New Jersey and Long Island shores could be seen dashing toward the fleet of liquor carriers, now five strong and anchored about seven miles off the Ambrose channel lightship, at the entrance to New York harbor.

Several shore craft had visited the fleet earlier in the day.

At dusk nine speedy boats were alongside the rum fleet, while others could be seen approaching from the bay, and the Long Island shore. Having made an early start, the peddlers were expected to complete two trips during the night, according to rumor ashore.

EXTRA PATROL CRAFT NOT AVAILABLE

New York, Nov. 21.—Coast guard headquarters stated last night that it was aware of the reported seasonal activity of rum runners off the Jersey coast, but that no extra patrol craft were available here to combat the smuggling operations.

The cutter Gresham, however, left at dusk for rum row for its nightly tour of duty and two swift craft which have accounted for a dozen smugglers' speed boats in the last month, hurried out to Ambrose channel to cut off runners from Long Island havens. In addition, New York police boats are under orders to keep a constant lookout for the latest fleet reported to have left the Bahamas.

Mrs. Magnus Johnson Busy as She Prepares To Leave for Capital

Kimball, Minn., Nov. 21.—Getting her household in order this week, preparatory to leaving for Washington with her husband, Mrs. Magnus Johnson said: "I don't want to leave too much for Lily to do here when I leave, as she will be pretty busy looking after the boys. We are taking the two younger girls, Agnes and Florence with us. We also wanted to take Magnus, Jr., but he likes the farm and refused to go."

"Magnus tells me Washington is a beautiful city and that I will like it, but I don't know. I was born and raised on the farm adjoining ours and have never been further than 100 miles from home in my life, never having been out of Minnesota. It is all going to be new to me and I don't know how I am going to like it. Anyway, when spring comes I must come back to the farm and help. While away I'll just rest and look around while Magnus is busy."

Mrs. Johnson left it be understood, in a quiet way, that she gets tired of politics. She said: "I get so tired of politics. You know, my husband isn't home much any more. He is besieged by people for this and that, and asked to help and urged to talk everywhere. But I went down to Litchfield with him the other day and made him remain with me while I bought a nice new coat and hat to wear to Washington."

BELGIUM PREPARES TO CALL CLASSES OF 1919, 20, 21 TO ARMY

Brussels, Nov. 21.—Preparations are reported to have been started with a view to calling to the colors the classes of 1919, 1920 and 1921, one of which is expected to be summoned immediately.

Socialist members of the chamber of deputies are publishing statements declaring "German provocations" intolerable, and stating that the latest events in Germany have shown the democracy to be bankrupt.

STAMPS AND CASH

Mayville, Wis., Nov. 21.—Burglars early today raided the post office here and broke into a cabinet which contained stamps and cash estimated to total more than $1,000.

They apparently were frightened away before they had a chance to blow the safe.

EXPLOSION TEARS P. O. SAFE LOOSE

Theresa, Wis., Nov. 21.—Burglars believed to be the same as those who raided the post office at Mayville early today blew the safe of the post office here last night and escaped with $500 in stamps and $50 in cash. The explosion tore the safe loose from the concrete wall in which it was set.

20 POLICE CAPTURE 2 YEGGS IN MILL CITY

Minneapolis, Nov. 21.—Caught attempting to open the safe with a sledge hammer, two young men were captured early today by a cordon of twenty police who surrounded them. The two are alleged to have confessed to five sledge hammer robberies in north and northeast Minneapolis.

The two gave their names as James Keely, 19, and Edward Goodrie, 22. The two were discovered at work on the safe in the Winkley Artificial Limb company by Patrolman Joseph Vosika as he was making his rounds.

Sneeze Holds Up Train; Passengers Join Hunt For Conductor's Teeth

Riverside, Calif., Nov. 21.—A sneeze held up a train near here delaying 100 Los Angeles bound passengers 15 minutes.

Conductor Elmer Post had hay fever, according to police, who told the story. He was standing on the step of a sleeping car as the train neared Riverside in the darkness preceding dawn, and the impulse to sneeze seized him.

He sneezed so hard that a $60 set of false teeth flew from his mouth into outer gloom.

The train was stopped and a search organized, a policeman happening along and helping the train crew.

Even the keen scent of the trained policeman failed to locate the missing molars before the train went on. But the teeth were safe, it developed later. They had fallen into an irrigation ditch.

Can Found by Boys Holds Fortune in Jewels

Huntington, N. Y., Nov. 21.—A rusty tin can picked up by two boys playing on Huntington Bay beach was found to contain $10,000 in jewels which were stolen from the room of Henry C. Wilcox, vice president of the American Surety company of New York, in the Huntington Bay club two months ago. Mr. Wilcox rewarded the boys with $1,000.

(By United Press)
Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 21.—South Dakota is still anybody's plum so far as the presidential situation is concerned.

Proposal conventions to be held December 4th will have a vast majority of uninstructed delegates privileged to place almost anyone on the presidential primary ballot. It is comparatively easy to get on even without convention endorsement.

Sentiment expressed in county proposal conventions throughout the state yesterday gave Calvin Coolidge and Hiram Johnson about an even break in the republican race. Four counties sent delegates instructed to stand by President Coolidge and three counties sent delegates instructed for Hiram Johnson. In addition six counties endorsed state of officials who are known to be favorable to Senator Johnson.

A great majority of republican delegations, however, are uninstructed and will be free to follow their own feelings in the republican proposal convention.

William Gibbs McAdoo swept the democratic conventions, taking 11 counties and a number of scattered delegates. Supporters of the former secretary of the treasury claimed he will have 23,825 votes in the democratic state convention out of a possible 50,409 represented.

Henry Ford who has been non-committal as to the presidency took four full counties and a number of scattered delegates which friends assert will give him about 8,000 votes in the democratic convention. This was hailed as a victory by Ford supporters who contended his silence was a handicap.

YONKERS MAYOR DEAD FROM BULLET

Yonkers, New York, Nov. 21.—Mayor Walter M. Taussig died in St. John's hospital here today from bullet wounds.

The mayor was found this morning near his garage back of his house. A revolver was in one of his hands or close beside the body, according to first information obtained by police.

Police were inclined to believe the wound was self-inflicted but admitted that they had not learned any reason why the mayor should wish to kill himself.

Man Can Add 10 Years To Life by Careful Living, Says Mayo

Lima, Nov. 21.—By careful living a normal man can add at least 10 years to his life, Dr. Charles Mayo, famous surgeon of Rochester, Minn., declared in an address here to physicians, surgeons and dentists from all parts of Ohio who came here to attend a clinic of the Allen County Academy of Medicine.

He declared the way to attain the extra years of life is to be examined at least once a year by a competent physician and follow his advice.

'Report Unfounded' Says Taft

Washington, Nov. 21.—A report picked up by radio fans shortly after midnight to the effect that Chief Justice Howard E. Taft was dead, started newspaper telephone ringing and sent reporters scurrying out Wyoming avenue to the Taft residence.

"So far as I know," said the chief justice sleepily from a window, "the report is without foundation."

Fred Lindt, superintendent of the Great Northern shops at St. Cloud, filed a complaint with Judge J. R. Donohue in municipal court setting forth Cooper's operations. He was one of the victims.

RUM RUNNERS GET READY FOR A BIG HOLIDAY BUSINESS

SEVEN BOATS LAND CARGOES OF
BOTTLED HOLIDAY CHEER ON
NEW JERSEY COAST

THE BOTTLE FISHERMEN FROM
POINTS ALONG LONG ISLAND
SHORES GET BUSY

Highlands, N. J., Nov. 21.—Seven speedy rum runners landed cargoes of bottled holiday cheer at towns along the New Jersey coast last night, but two others were chased by coast guards and were forced to jettison part of their loads.

ROW OPENS ITS PRE-HOLIDAY SALE

Highlands, N. J., Nov. 21.—Rum row today opened its pre-holiday sale.

At sundown more than a dozen bottle fishermen from points along the New Jersey and Long Island shores could be seen dashing toward the fleet of liquor carriers, now five strong and anchored about seven miles off the Ambrose channel lightship, at the entrance to New York harbor.

Several shore craft had visited the fleet earlier in the day. At dusk nine speedy boats were alongside the rum fleet, while others could be seen approaching from the bay, and the Long Island shore. Having made an early start, the peddlers are expected to complete two trips during the night, according to rumor ashore.

EXTRA PATROL CRAFT NOT AVAILABLE

New York, Nov. 21.—Coast guard headquarters stated last night that it was aware of the reported seasonal activity of rum runners off the Jersey coast, but that no extra patrol craft were available here to combat the smuggling operations.

The cutter Gresham, however, left at dusk for rum row for its nightly tour of duty and two swift craft which have accounted for a dozen smugglers' speed boats in the last month, hurried out to Ambrose channel to cut off runners from Long Island havens. In addition, New York police boats are under orders to keep a constant lookout for the latest fleet reported to have left the Bahamas.

Mrs. Magnus Johnson Busy as She Prepares To Leave for Capital

Kimball, Minn., Nov. 21.—Getting her household in order this week, preparatory to leaving for Washington with her husband, Mrs. Magnus Johnson said: "I don't want to leave too much for Lily to do here when I leave, as she will be pretty busy looking after the boys. We are taking the two younger girls, Agnes and Florence with us. We also wanted to take Magnus, Jr., but he likes the farm and refused to go."

"Magnus tells me Washington is a beautiful city and that I will like it, but I don't know. I was born and raised on the farm adjoining ours and have never been further than 100 miles from home in my life, never having been out of Minnesota. It is all going to be new to me and I don't know how I am going to like it. Anyway, when spring comes I must come back to the farm and help. While away I'll just rest and look around while Magnus is busy."

Mrs. Johnson let it be understood, in a quiet way, that she gets tired of politics. You know, my husband isn't home much any more. He is besieged by people for this and that, and asked to help and urged to talk everywhere. But I went down to Litchfield with him the other day and made him remain with me while I bought a nice new coat and hat to wear to Washington."

BELGIUM PREPARES TO CALL CLASSES OF 1919, 20, 21 TO ARMY

Brussels, Nov. 21.—Preparations are reported to have been started with a view to calling to the colors the classes of 1919, 1920 and 1921, one of which is expected to be summoned immediately.

Socialist members of the chamber of deputies are publishing statements declaring "German provocations" intolerable, and stating that the latest events in Germany have shown the democracy to be bankrupt.

YEGGS ARE BUSY IN TWO STATES, A PAIR IS TAKEN

(By United Press)

STEAL $1,000 IN
STAMPS AND CASH

Mayville, Wis., Nov. 21.—Burglars early today raided the post office here and broke into a cabinet which contained stamps and cash estimated to total more than $1,000.

They apparently were frightened away before they had a chance to blow the safe.

EXPLOSION TEARS P. O. SAFE LOOSE

Theresa, Wis., Nov. 21.—Burglars believed to be the same as those who raided the post office at Mayville early today blew the safe of the post office here last night and escaped with $500 in stamps and $50 in cash. The explosion tore the safe loose from the concrete wall in which it was set.

20 POLICE CAPTURE 2 YEGGS IN MILL CITY

Minneapolis, Nov. 21.—Caught attempting to open the safe with a sledge hammer, two young men were captured early today by a cordon of twenty police who surrounded them. The two are alleged to have confessed to five sledge hammer robberies in north and northeast Minneapolis.

The two gave their names as James Keely, 19, and Edward Goodrie, 22. The two were discovered at work on the safe in the Winkley Artificial Limb company by Patrolman Joseph Vosika as he was making his rounds.

Sneeze Holds Up Train; Passengers Join Hunt For Conductor's Teeth

Riverside, Calif., Nov. 21.—A sneeze held up a train near here delaying 100 Los Angeles bound passengers 15 minutes.

Conductor Elmer Post had hay fever, according to police, who told the story. He was standing on the step of a sleeping car as the train neared Riverside in the darkness preceding dawn, and the impulse to sneeze seized him.

He sneezed so hard that a $60 set of false teeth flew from his mouth into outer gloom.

The train was stopped and a search organized, a policeman happening along and helping the train crew.

Even the keen scent of the trained policeman failed to locate the missing molars before the train went on. But the teeth were safe, it developed later. They had fallen into an irrigation ditch.

Can Found by Boys Holds Fortune in Jewels

Huntington, N. Y., Nov. 21.—A rusty tin can picked up by two boys playing on Huntington Bay beach was found to contain $10,000 in jewels which were stolen from the room of Henry C. Wilcox, vice president of the American Surety company of New York, in the Huntington Bay club two months ago. Mr. Wilcox rewarded the boys with $1,000.

CALVIN COOLIDGE, HIRAM JOHNSON IN AN EVEN BREAK

WILLIAM G. McADOO SWEPT THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS,
TAKING 19 COUNTIES

HENRY FORD TOOK 4 COUNTIES
MIGHT HAVE HAD MORE IF BREAKING SILENCE

(By United Press)
Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 21.—South Dakota is still anybody's plum so far as the presidential situation is concerned.

Proposal conventions to be held December 4th will have a vast majority of uninstructed delegates privileged to place almost anyone on the presidential primary ballot. It is comparatively easy to get on even without convention endorsement.

Sentiment expressed in county proposal conventions throughout the state yesterday gave Calvin Coolidge and Hiram Johnson about an even break in the republican race. Four counties sent delegates instructed to stand by President Coolidge and three counties sent delegates instructed for Hiram Johnson. In addition six counties endorsed state of officials who are known to be favorable to Senator Johnson.

A great majority of republican delegations, however, are uninstructed and will be free to follow their own feelings in the republican proposal convention.

William Gibbs McAdoo swept the democratic conventions, taking 11 counties and a number of scattered delegates. Supporters of the former secretary of the treasury claimed he will have 23,825 votes in the democratic state convention out of a possible 50,409 represented.

Henry Ford who has been non-committal as to the presidency took four full counties and a number of scattered delegates which friends assert will give him about 8,000 votes in the democratic convention. This was hailed as a victory by Ford supporters who contended his silence was a handicap.

YONKERS MAYOR DEAD FROM BULLET

Yonkers, New York, Nov. 21.—Mayor Walter M. Taussig died in St. John's hospital here today from bullet wounds.

The mayor was found this morning near his garage back of his house. A revolver was in one of his hands or close beside the body, according to first information obtained by police.

Police were inclined to believe the wound was self-inflicted but admitted that they had not learned any reason why the mayor should wish to kill himself.

Man Can Add 10 Years To Life by Careful Living, Says Mayo

Lima, Nov. 21.—By careful living a normal man can add at least 10 years to his life, Dr. Charles Mayo, famous surgeon of Rochester, Minn., declared in an address here to physicians, surgeons and dentists from all parts of Ohio who came here to attend a clinic of the Allen County Academy of Medicine.

He declared the way to attain the extra years of life is to be examined at least once a year by a competent physician and follow his advice.

'Report Unfounded' Says Taft
Washington, Nov. 21.—A report picked up by radio fans shortly after midnight to the effect that Chief Justice Howard E. Taft was dead, started newspaper telephones ringing and sent reporters scurrying out Wyoming avenue to the Taft residence.

"So far as I know," said the chief justice sleepily from a window, "the report is without foundation."

"KATHLEEN" IN ANOTHER TRIUMPH

Second Night of Elks Home Talent Show Goes Even Better Than the First Night

RANGE NIGHT ON TUESDAY

"Funny Four" in New Songs and Dances Interpolated Many Jokes on Range Elks

"Kathleen," Brainerd Lodge of Elks No. 615 home talent show presented under the direction of James P. Blue of the John B. Rogers Producing company, went even better the second night and scored another great triumph.

It was "Range Night" and Elks, families and friends of the range towns of Crosby, Ironton, Deerwood, Cuyuna, Trommald, Manganese were there in large numbers. The curtain was held until the range contingent arrived. It showed good fellowship on the part of the range people to make a 45 mile round trip to see the show and they enjoyed every minute of it.

"The Funny Four" who appeared between acts, remodeled their jokes and had many hits directed on range people.

Cast and choruses were almost better perfect. So good has "Kathleen" been that many Brainerd people came a second time to see the show. The play advertised for and wide the native talent shown and paves the way for further successful histrionic efforts.

The Elks lodge is extremely grateful to all who took part in the same and made it such a glowing success. A five piece orchestra made the score more effective. A notable factor was the work of the pianist, Mrs. Leo Riffenrath, who assisted at rehearsals and also played for the show Monday and Tuesday.

When the curtain fell on the last act, Director Blue assembled the big company and a flashlight was taken by the Birkeland studio. Prints are now on exhibition at the studio and they make a fine souvenir. One of the photographs is to be enlarged and framed and hung in the Elks' club room.

At an early date the Elks lodge will give a party for the cast and choruses in Elks hall as a token of appreciation of the splendid services they rendered in putting over such a good show.

It is considered remarkable that the show was successfully put on in 10 days. Intensive study coupled with conscientious direction was just tempered right to produce the required enthusiasm which made the work of cast and chorus fresh and spontaneous and a positive delight to every theatre-goer.

REPORTS QUICK RELIEF FROM STOMACH PAINS

After suffering tortures for years from stomach pains, an old mother found relief through the efforts of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. McDonough, Box 99, Barronett, Wis. Mrs. McDonough writes as follows: "I can truthfully say that mother is in better condition than for five years. When she began taking Sto-li-gal she was in an awful condition. She had pains in the stomach and back and could not eat or sleep. And the doctors said all they could do would be to give her temporary relief. Then I heard of Sto-li-gal and procured it for her. Now she does not feel any of the old distressing symptoms. Through the use of Sto-li-gal thousands of sufferers have been quickly relieved from the tortures of gassy, sour stomach, pains in stomach and back, indigestion, dyspepsia, shortage of breath, stomach ulcers, heartburn, dizziness, torpid liver, yellow jaundice, chronic appendicitis, gallstones and chronic constipation. If you are a sufferer demand Sto-li-gal from your druggist. If he cannot supply you send $1.00 for a full combination treatment or 10c for a trial treatment sent postage paid by Digestive Chemical Co., 800 University ave., St. Paul, Minn. Sto-li-gal is sold in Brainerd at Johnson Bros. Drug Store and Dunn's Pharmacy.—Adv't.

BROTHER OF LEONARD PORTANO ALSO HAS A KILLING RECORD

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Nov. 20.—A brother of Leonard Portano, who killed four persons in Kelliher for love of a girl, killed two persons in Minneapolis for the same reason.

This was revealed today by inspection of the records of the clerk of courts for Hennepin county.

Leonard Portano came to the aid of his brother Nick when the latter was accused in Minneapolis in 1913, and hired an attorney to defend him.

Nick Portano was released after two trials. In the first the jury disagreed but in the second he was found not guilty of killing Nick Breno.

The other murder charge in connection with the death of Margaret Rosa, the woman in the case, was dismissed when the jury failed to convict. Nick Portano did not deny shooting the two persons, but claimed self-defense. He and Breno were rivals for the hand of the girl.

In a confession soon after his arrest, he told police he paid Breno $30 to stay away from Margaret Rosa. Returning to Breno's shack near the Great Northern tracks at the east side junction, he found the two there. He entered and accused Breno of breaking his promise. The shooting followed in which Portano killed the other two with a shot gun.

This shooting occurred March 5, 1913. Portano was indicted by the Hennepin county grand jury May 13, 1913.

Anthony Grotto, attorney who defended Portano, admitted today that Leonard Portano came to Minneapolis from Middletown, N. Y., and hired him to defend Nick Portano. Leonard Portano killed Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, parents of Myrtle Sanders, the girl he loved; his rival, Oscar Timmy, and J. A. Wilson, marshal of Kelliher, last Thursday. Myrtle was forced to accompany Portano on his murderous mission.

REPORTS QUICK RELIEF FROM STOMACH PAINS

After suffering tortures for years from stomach pains, an old mother found relief through the efforts of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. McDonough, Box 99, Barronett, Wis. Mrs. McDonough writes as follows: "I can truthfully say that mother is in better condition than for five years. When she began taking Sto-li-gal she was in an awful condition. She had pains in the stomach and back and could not eat or sleep. And the doctors said all they could do would be to give her temporary relief. Then I heard of Sto-li-gal and procured it for her. Now she does not feel any of the old distressing symptoms. Through the use of Sto-li-gal thousands of sufferers have been quickly relieved from the tortures of gassy, sour stomach, pains in stomach and back, indigestion, dyspepsia, shortage of breath, stomach ulcers, heartburn, dizziness, torpid liver, yellow jaundice, chronic appendicitis, gallstones and chronic constipation. If you are a sufferer demand Sto-li-gal from your druggist. If he cannot supply you send $1.00 for a full combination treatment or 10c for a trial treatment sent postage paid by Digestive Chemical Co., 800 University ave., St. Paul, Minn. Sto-li-gal is sold in Brainerd at Johnson Bros. Drug Store and Dunn's Pharmacy.—Adv't.

BROTHER OF LEONARD PORTANO ALSO HAS A KILLING RECORD

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Nov. 20.—A brother of Leonard Portano, who killed four persons in Kelihier for love of a girl, killed two persons in Minneapolis for the same reason.

This was revealed today by inspection of the records of the clerk of courts for Hennepin county.

Leonard Portano came to the aid of his brother Nick when the latter was accused in Minneapolis in 1913, and hired an attorney to defend him.

Nick Portano was released after two trials. In the first the jury disagreed but in the second he was found not guilty of killing Nick Breno.

The other murder charge in connection with the death of Margaret Rosa, the woman in the case, was dismissed when the jury failed to convict. Nick Portano did not deny shooting the two persons, but claimed self-defense. He and Breno were rivals for the hand of the girl.

In a confession soon after his arrest, he told police he paid Breno $30 to stay away from Margaret Rosa. Returning to Breno's shack near the Great Northern tracks at the east side junction, he found the two there. He entered and accused Breno of breaking his promise. The shooting followed in which Portano killed the other two with a shot gun.

This shooting occurred March 5, 1913. Portano was indicted by the Hennepin county grand jury May 13, 1913.

Anthony Grotto, attorney who defended Portano, admitted today that Leonard Portano came to Minneapolis from Middletown, N. Y., and hired him to defend Nick Portano. Leonard Portano killed Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, parents of Myrtle Sanders, the girl he loved; his rival, Oscar Timmy, and J. A. Wilson, marshal of Kelihier, last Thursday. Myrtle was forced to accompany Portano on his murderous mission.

HIRAM JOHNSON LOOKS TO WASHINGTON

IN 1912 Hiram Johnson looked to Washington and hoped to win the vice presidency as the running mate of the indomitable Colonel Roosevelt. At that time it seemed that the country might listen to the voice of the great American and elect the progressive leader to the presidency and at the same time carry along with him the man from California. But not even the strength of the colonel was able to swing sufficient votes to take him to the White House on the progressive ticket, and many things have happened since 1912.

Probably the most striking change during these years is seen in the shifting of interest from the progressive to the radical. In 1912 Colonel Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson were considered radical by many whereas today they would be accepted as moderately conservative. This is seen in the statement of Senator Magnus Johnson who suggests that Hiram is not as progressive as he used to be. It is probable that the change is not so much in Hiram as in those who measure progressives in the light of the newer ideas as to what is progressive and what is conservative.

Because the attitude of the people is so different it is likely that Hiram Johnson is not as strong now as he was in 1912. If the Republican party is to choose a man who can beat a man like McAdoo who may be nominated by the Democratic party it will show its wisdom by choosing a man who is likely to take votes that McAdoo might otherwise claim and a man of the Hiram Johnson type is not the man. Both would be termed moderately progressive and if the third party puts forward a candidate of radical tendencies the Republicans will have a better chance of winning with a sane leader of the Coolidge type.

The votes cast in the primary elections did not decide the issue in the Republican convention in 1920 and it is not likely that they will decide it in 1924, unless some candidate gets an enormous vote. And from the standpoint of gaining a Republican victory it is possible that it is well that this should not lead to the choice. Warren G. Harding won by an unprecedented majority in 1920, and while it may be claimed that any nominee would have won by a handsome vote because the people were voting out the Democrats rather than voting in the Republicans, nevertheless there is reason to believe that Senator Harding did make an appeal to the voters.

After Senator Harding had been nominated it was feared by some leaders of his own party that he could not win the election because he was known to be conservative, while the people were supposedly to be leaning towards a progressive candidate, but the result of the election proved that these were mistaken, and what happened in 1920 may happen again in 1924.

Looking at the situation as it is today it would appear that Hiram Johnson is not the man to lead the Republican party. He is not radical enough for the radical element of the Middle West and the conservative members of the Republican party would not rally to his standard with enthusiasm. Given McAdoo and a candidate of the third party Calvin Coolidge would be more likely to lead his party to victory than the forceful person from the Pacific coast.

THE THIRD PARTY

At present the third party lacks cohesion; it is not a party but a number of groups whose fusion may be made possible by the unusual conditions existing in the United States today. Whether these groups, if they are able to unite at this time, will be unified to the same degree one year from now remains to be seen. Their interests are dissimilar, their candidates are different and their ambitions are likely to clash.

Three or more of the groups will try to agree on a candidate and a platform. These are the "Committee of 48," the Farmer-Labor party and the Ford-for-president group. The "Committee of 48" is progressive, but possibly not as radical as the Farmer-Labor group, the Farmer-Labor group is radical and because of certain elements in this group, one of which takes in those who would like to see the Volstead Act modified, it may be hard for this party to take warmly to Henry Ford as their candidate, while the Ford-for-president group has one aim and that is the nominating and electing of Henry Ford.

Behind the scenes stands a figure that cannot be discounted. Senator Robert M. La Follette is a shrewd politician and he has many friends in these groups. Perhaps the personnel of the groups will not be able to come together under this leader, but if they fail to do so they may bring about a condition of affairs which will interfere with the success of their enterprise.

There is no way of determining to what extent the people of the United States are intent upon expressing their disapproval of the old parties. In the Middle West it is likely that the voters will repeat their performance of the past two years and seek the election of candidates who oppose the two major parties, but because it is not possible to decide just how widespread this attitude is, it is impossible to predict how the voters of the nation will respond to the appeal of a radical candidate for the presidency. After 20 years the labor party is not yet in power in Britain and during that period the party has been strengthening its appeal and increasing its following, and it is not at all likely that the various elements in our national life will be able to get together and support a strong candidate. It is probable that the strength of the candidate would spell his undoing because it will be necessary to play for the support of so many different elements that the strong man would be unable to play the game. To meet the demands of the factions which some are seeking to fuse a man would be compelled to carefully straddle issues so as not to offend the different groups.

EMPLOYEES AND RAILROAD OWNERSHIP

THERE are many plans before the workers today which offer them better days. Some of these are radical in conception while others seek a similar end without accepting the radical proposal contained in the others. There are those who would bring the railroads under virtual control of the workers without having the workers financially interested in the roads through their own efforts to own stock in the roads. On the other hand, the managements of some of the railroads are asking their employees to become co-partners with them and the stockholders in furthering railroad operations.

There is no reason to look upon such proposals with suspicion. This plan is already too far advanced in America for it to be considered in such a light. It is an attempt to secure one of the greatest advantages that can come to industry, which is the interest of the workers in the work they do and the organization for which they work.

The Great Northern railroad has joined with those forward-looking corporations that are seeking to interest their employees in their work and in the industry that uses their services by having them invest their savings in railroad stock. Manipulation of such stock would not bring any advantage to the railroads, for it would result in bitterness towards the road on the part of employee stockholders, and it is to remove such feelings that the plan is initiated.

If the workers will invest their earnings in industries in which they are employed they will secure a voice in the management of these—a voice that cannot be denied to those who hold stock in the industries.

LLOYD GEORGE went back to England in first-class condition for the political battle, and his first speech indicates that he takes it seriously, for he said that "the mutineers running Baldwin were sending the ship head-long on to the rocks."

FROM now on the American who sails on a British ship will be marked by cranks as a man who wants a drink. They'll never suspect that the ship sailed at the time he wanted to sail and had the accommodations he sought.

WELFARE WORK IN THE COUNTY

Miss I. C. Johnson, Field Nursing Representative of Junior Red Cross Creates Interest

STRESSES MATERNITY WORK
Also Makes Stirring Appeal for the Red Cross Roll Call

(By Mrs. W. H. Gemmell)

Miss I. C. Johnson, Field Nursing Representative of the Junior Red Cross spent several days in Brainerd, last week conferring with regard to the Public Health Nursing service of Brainerd and Crow Wing county. She urged that the maternity and infancy work be stressed, as it is now carried on according to the provisions of the Shepard-Towner act and under the direction of the Department of Child Hygiene, State Board of Health.

A dinner was given in Miss Johnson's honor in order that she might have the opportunity of speaking to the Rural Teachers on the subject of introducing the Junior Red Cross in their schools. The Junior Red Cross is an organization as wonderful for the children as the Adult Red Cross has been for older people and Miss Johnson gave the main after-dinner talk in its behalf. The Junior Red Cross is organized in every room in the Brainerd schools, also on the range and we believe now that soon it will find its place in the hearts of all the rural children. It is endorsed by leading educators. Last year the funds of the Junior in Brainerd were all devoted to the car for the Rural Nursing Service.

In the evening at the high school meeting, Miss Johnson made a stirring appeal for the Red Cross Roll Call. We wish her words might have resounded all over the county. She told what the Red Cross is doing to help Japan and other countries and that in so doing is helping to bring about the era of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.

I would like at this time to call attention to the fact that the Rural contributions to the Red Cross as well as that of the Brainerd Juniors were used to buy the new car for the Rural Nursing Service. These contributions were not nearly enough and had to be supplemented when the new car was purchased last May by other funds. We believe the work has become better known and we trust this year there will be a generous response to the Roll Call throughout the county. The Rural health car gets hard wear and enough money should be received at this time to provide a new car in due season, so that there will not be the need of waiting and thus run up the expense account unduly, because of a breaking down car.

Then our Loan Closets need replenishing. The one which has been kept up by the Brainerd people is all run down, and others should be re-established. Two or three new ones should be established. Nothing is so appreciated by a Public Health Nurse as a well stocked loan closet. A generous response to our county roll call should easily provide for the car and for several loan closets in our county.

I would like also to say a word for our Christmas Seal Sale. This provides throughout the state, as everyone knows, not only for specific work for patients afflicted with but also for work in prevention of tuberculosis. Under this head come our clinics, where mothers are taught the value of proper nutrition and care for their children that they may be in condition and thus prevent tuberculosis as well as other diseases taking hold of them.

In our Crow Wing county this Christmas Seal Sale fund not only gave us our Children's Clinics, but when recently the money from the State Tuberculosis Commission temporarily gave out, which money, coming through the Deerwood Sanatorium Board and the Red Cross, has paid nearly one third of the salary of the Rural Public Health Nurse, the Christmas Seal Sale Fund came to the rescue with the needed $145. So let us in gratitude and as a precaution for the future boost as we have never boosted before for the Christmas Seal Sale.

Saving of Breath.

FREE MARL OFFERED CROW WING FARMERS

Farmers wishing to try out alfalfa and marl can get free marl at the Murray field, Pequot, and at the Koering field, Crow Wing. Each man will receive free of charge six wagon loads. This should be placed on two acres of land. This marl should be hauled this fall, put into piles and left to thaw and freeze over winter. This puts it in good shape to put on the field either with a lime spreader or with a manure spreader in the spring. This marl can then be applied to the field previous to seeding. An application for this marl may be made with the county agent at Brainerd, with the owner of the field, or with F. J. Persson, agricultural instructor of Pequot. This marl is donated through the courtesy of the owner of the marl bed and silos division of the University of Minnesota by which this supply was excavated. Give this your attention before it freezes up.

FUR FARMING

Deerwood Man Launches Enterprise Promising Most Handsome Returns

An industry that has great possibilities is being started in Crow Wing county, that of fur farming. Colonel Bennett and Dr. Olson of Deerwood have started fur farming one mile west of Deerwood and to watch their procedure is very interesting. Both are experts.

Colonel Bennett for many years has been a furrier and is a man who started the first fur farm in the United States. Dr. Olson has made a study of diets and feeding. Dr. Olson said that inside of 5 years fur farming should be Crow Wing county's second largest industry.

He stated that this county lies in the southern part of the Canadian fur zone, that its young growing timber lands make it possible for the best kind of fur farming, that the climate is mild so as to make living comfortable, and that the numerous lakes and rice beds furnish ideal conditions for muskrats.

He stated that one with 350 skunks can make a good living in the county getting an income exceeding that of most farmers. Skunks have litters of from eight to fourteen. Their fur is worth from $6.00 to $12.00 each. Figuring minimums and figuring that it cost $2.50 to feed each one a person can figure on raising 2400 per year making a profit of $3 each above feeding costs. This would give him in the neighborhood of $7000 a year for investment and labor, neither of which need be very expensive as one man can readily take care of this number of skunks and buildings necessary are very inexpensive.

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—A veritable lump of mud, the first car to ever cross the American continent from Atlantic to Pacific using only high gear, arrived in Los Angeles Friday after driving 3,674 miles.

"Cannon-Ball" Baker, noted race driver, held up traffic for five minutes at Columbus Circle and Broadway, New York City, at noon on October 8th, while thousands gathered to witness the start of the first transcontinental high gear run. The Oldsmobile "Six" which Baker had selected to make the first coast-to-coast run in "high" was inspected, previous to his start, by New York newspapermen who witnessed the removal of low, second and, reverse gears and the sealing of the transmission box. Escorted by a cordon of New York motorcycle officers Baker started down Broadway on a trip that held the center of attention of automotive experts and car owners.

On his trip to Los Angeles, Baker encountered more than the usual difficulties, including the disastrous rains and floods that cost several millions of dollars of damage in Oklahoma, Missouri and Kansas. Among other hardships encountered by Baker and his newspaperman-companion were famous Kansas and Missouri axle-deep "gumbo," days of rain, mountains, snow, wash-outs in the roads and extreme desert heats as high as 110 degrees.

Brainerd hospital on a stretcher last Friday morning and operated on immediately for a ruptured appendix. He was in a critical condition for a few days, but is now improving.

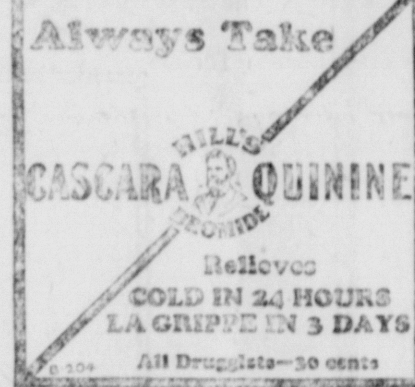

Mr. and Mrs. John Oberleiter were in Brainerd Thursday of last week, where Mrs. Oberleiter had a tumor removed from below her scalp. They were down again on Tuesday and Thursday to have the wound dressed.

Ernest Enes received notice from County Agent Roth the other day that he had been awarded a premium of $7 on his Green Mountain potatoes exhibited at the Duluth Potato show. Mr. Roth stated that this was either first or second premium, and that he was writing to be certain. Either award is a high honor when it is considered that there were 900 entries from all parts of the state in the Green Mountain class. Writing of Ernest's potatoes, Mr. Roth said, "They were a wonderful lot."

WELFARE WORK IN THE COUNTY

Miss I. C. Johnson, Field Nursing Representative of Junior Red Cross Creates Interest

STRESSES MATERNITY WORK

Also Makes Stirring Appeal for the Red Cross Roll Call

(By Mrs. W. H. Gemmell)

Miss I. C. Johnson, Field Nursing Representative of the Junior Red Cross spent several days in Brainerd, last week conferring with regard to the Public Health Nursing service of Brainerd and Crow Wing county. She urged that the maternity and infancy work be stressed, as it is now carried on according to the provisions of the Shepard-Towner act and under the direction of the Department of Child Hygiene, State Board of Health.

A dinner was given in Miss Johnson's honor in order that she might have the opportunity of speaking to the Rural Teachers on the subject of introducing the Junior Red Cross in their schools. TIMBER RESERVE AND STATE PARK

State Forester Rhodes to Make
Examination of the Gull Lake
Tract Proposed

DESIRE BRAINERD SENTIMENT

If City Shows No Enthusiasm in
Matter Tract or Timber May be
Sold This Winter

State Forester, E. W. Rhodes, in charge of the Brainerd district, has received a letter from Assistant Chief Forester B. M. Conzet, in regard to certain lands in Cass county, lying between the Pillsbury Forest and Gull lake, with about three-quarters of a mile of lake shore.

This tract of land was proposed as a timber reserve and state park by Mr. Conzet, when he visited Brainerd two weeks ago, and spoke on the matter before the Lions club and the Business Men's Association.

At that time he stated that if enough interest was shown by local citizens, it might be possible to have this land reserved as a state park, and also mentioned a second tract on Cullen lake, although he stated that it would probably be easier to have the first tract reserved than the second, since the state already owns the land adjoining in what is known as the Pillsbury forest.

In his letter to Forester Rhodes, Mr. Conzet asks him to make a careful examination of the Gull lake land and report to the state office as soon as possible. His letter in part follows:

"I think it would be well to go out at once and make a general examination of these lands. I think that perhaps two or three days would give plenty of information so that the Brainerd people would get enough detail on it.

"The parties owning this land are very anxious to have a voice of sentiment from the Brainerd people soon, so that they may make plans for holding it as a block.

"If Brainerd does not show much enthusiasm, they will make an effort to sell the lands or timber this winter. I think the timber is all rather small, but there have been some offers for it as pulp."

Mr. Rhodes states that he expects to make this survey this week, possibly starting out on it Thursday. As soon as his work is completed, which should be not later than Saturday, he will report his findings to the proper committees from the Civic and Commerce Association and from the general committee appointed by Mayor Con O'Brien.

This is a matter in which the various civic organizations in the city are very much interested, and Mr. Rhodes' report will be awaited with keen interest.

Scout Radio Program

Scout Sophus Baaken, of the Pequot troop, was the soloist on the Minneapolis Scout Radio program, broadcasted from station W. L. A. G. last night. He played a violin selection. This program is picked up by scouts all over the country every Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Headquarters is now arranging to receive this program so that all scouts may get it every Tuesday evening, and expect to have the arrangements completed so as to start the first Tuesday in December.

National Field Executive Here

On Friday afternoon at 4:30 the scouts will have the opportunity of meeting Mr. J. P. Freeman, of Chicago, who is the assistant to the National Field Executive, and in charge of all the western states. An outdoor Rally has been arranged and every scout is asked to assemble at the Tourist Camp grounds promptly at 4:30. A little "pep" fest will be held and then Mr. Freeman will give the scouts one of his characteristic talks, and those who do not hear it will miss something good for he is as full of memory stunts and magic as a dog is full of fleas. Here is the way one scout leader "saw" Mr. Freeman: "Jud" Freeman is a funny chap—All full of many a trick. He makes a handkerchief lay an egg. And a tenderfoot lay a brick. When people see him coming They cry out, "What's that I see?" "There's Uncle Walt, as sure as you live."

Now where can Skeezix be?

Court of Honor Examinations
This will be first examiners session in preparation for the Court of Honor to be held in December, and will be held in the Farmer's Room of the Court House on next Tuesday evening at 7:45. All second class scouts, all tenderfoot scouts with not over three second class tests left to make them a second class scout, all first class scouts who wish to be certified for Merit Badges, are requested to be on hand for these examinations.

Each one of you owe it to the community to "do your best" to advance yourself in Scoutcraft, and, as the Regional Council sets a limit of time in which you shall pass these tests and advance to the next rank, the Examining Board requests that every scout who comes under the above list be on hand.

Troop Efficiency Inspections

Each troop in the county will be inspected before December 1st to determine just what their troop program has been worth during the month of November. If you have put on a worth-while program you should be able to score the required 85% and will be awarded a Troop Efficiency streamer by the Council. The results will be published in the

Instead of using a flag to designate the point at which the player has completed his number of strokes the replica of a tombstone is sometimes used, bearing an epitaph something to the effect that "Here died Jim Smith, Oct. 15, 1922."

TIMBER RESERVE AND STATE PARK

State Forester Rhodes to Make
Examination of the Gull Lake
Tract Proposed

DESIRE BRAINERD SENTIMENT

If City Shows No Enthusiasm in
Matter Tract or Timber May be
Sold This Winter

State Forester, E. W. Rhodes, in charge of the Brainerd district, has received a letter from Assistant Chief Forester B. M. Conzet, in regard to certain lands in Cass county, lying between the Pillsbury Forest and Gull lake, with about three-quarters of a mile of lake shore.

This tract of land was proposed as a timber reserve and state park by Mr. Conzet, when he visited Brainerd two weeks ago, and spoke on the matter before the Lions club and the Business Men's Association.

At that time he stated that if enough interest was shown by local citizens, it might be possible to have this land reserved as a state park, and also mentioned a second tract on Cullen lake, although he stated that it would probably be easier to have the first tract reserved than the second, since the state already owns the land adjoining in what is known as the Pillsbury forest.

In his letter to Forester Rhodes, Mr. Conzet asks him to make a careful examination of the Gull lake land and report to the state office as soon as possible. His letter in part follows:

"I think it would be well to go out at once and make a general examination of these lands. I think that perhaps two or three days would give plenty of information so that the Brainerd people would get enough detail on it.

"The parties owning this land are very anxious to have a voice of sentiment from the Brainerd people soon, so that they may make plans for holding it as a block.

"If Brainerd does not show much enthusiasm, they will make an effort to sell the lands or timber this winter. I think the timber is all rather small, but there have been some offers for it as pulp."

Mr. Rhodes states that he expects to make this survey this week, possibly starting out on it Thursday. As soon as his work is completed, which should be not later than Saturday, he will report his findings to the proper committees from the Civic and Commerce Association and from the general committee appointed by Mayor Con O'Brien.

This is a matter in which the various civic organizations in the city are very much interested, and Mr. Rhodes' report will be awaited with keen interest.

Scout Radio Program

Scout Sophus Baaken, of the Pequot troop, was the soloist on the Minneapolis Scout Radio program, broadcasted from station W. J. A. G. last night. He played a violin selection. This program is picked up by scouts all over the country every Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Headquarters is now arranging to receive this program so that all scouts may get it every Tuesday evening, and expect to have the arrangements completed so as to start the first Tuesday in December.

National Field Executive Here

On Friday afternoon at 4:30 the scouts will have the opportunity of meeting Mr. J. P. Freeman, of Chicago, who is the assistant to the National Field Executive, and in charge of all the western states. An outdoor Rally has been arranged and every scout is asked to assemble at the Tourist Camp grounds promptly at 4:30. A little "pep" fest will be held and then Mr. Freeman will give the scouts one of his characteristic talks, and those who do not hear it will miss something good for he is as full of memory stunts and magic as a dog is full of fleas. Here is the way one scout leader "saw" Mr. Freeman:

"Jud" Freeman is a funny chap—All full of many a trick. He makes a handkerchief lay an egg. And a tenderfoot lay a brick. When people see him coming They cry out, "What's that I see?" There's Unca Walt, as sure as you live.

"Now where can Skeezix be?"

Court of Honor Examinations

This will be first examiners session in preparation for the Court of Honor to be held in December, and will be held in the Farmer's Room of the Court House on next Tuesday evening at 7:45. All second class scouts, all tenderfoot scouts with not over three second class tests left to make them a second class scout, all first class scouts who wish to be certified for Merit Badges, are requested to be on hand for these examinations.

Each one of you owe it to the community to "do your best" to advance yourself in Scoutcraft, and, as the Regional Council sets a limit of time in which you shall pass these tests and advance to the next rank, the Examining Board requests that every scout who comes under the above list be on hand.

Troop Efficiency Inspections

Each troop in the county will be inspected before December 1st to determine just what their troop program has been worth during the month of November. If you have put on a worth-while program you should be able to score the required 85% and will be awarded a Troop Efficiency streamer by the Council. The results will be published in this

Golf "Tombstone Tournament."

In a flag tombstone tournament, play is on a medal basis, the players' club handicaps being usually allowed. Each player is permitted to play a number of strokes equivalent to the par for the course, plus his handicap, and when he has played his last shot he must mark the spot where his ball lies with a flag bearing his name. Instead of using a flag to designate the point at which the player has completed his number of strokes the replica of a tombstone is sometimes used, bearing an epitaph something to the effect that "Here died Jim Smith, Oct. 15, 1922."

Veteran Real Estate Dealer Will Spend Winter With His Family

P. B. Nettleton, veteran real estate dealer, will leave Saturday night for Tacoma, where his family resides, and where he usually spends his winters.

As Mr. Nettleton is 78 years old, he has decided to retire from active business in Brainerd, and expects to spend the remainder of his life with his family in the West.

He has disposed of considerable of his real estate holdings in Brainerd, and vicinity, and G. W. Chadbourne will look after the remainder for him.

Mr. Nettleton expects, however, to visit Brainerd occasionally in the future as business may call him here. He declares that he has always liked Brainerd and Brainerd people, and he greatly regrets to leave.

The president of the commission states that as there will be no city election next spring, and there does not appear to be any business at present demanding the attention of the commission, of sufficient importance to justify the expense of a special election, it is altogether likely that no meetings will be held during the winter.

The commission may, however, if requested to do so by proper petitions meet in the spring to consider amendments desired, with a view to submitting same to the voters at the general election in November next.

NIGHT SCHOOLS TO GET IMPETUS

Delegates of Organizations Favorable to Schools to Meet at Northeast Improvement League

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 27

Brainerd Lions Club Will Assist and Present An Original Program

All organizations of the city who are interested in night classes as set forth in the resolutions of the Northeast Brainerd Improvement League are requested to have delegates at the next meeting of the League at the Lowell school on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27. All individuals who are interested are also requested to be present. A permanent organization to take this work in charge will be formed at that time and it is hoped that representatives from all parts of the city and organizations will be present.

Starting at 7:30 and lasting for 30 or perhaps 36 minutes the Brainerd Lions club, and possibly one other party, will entertain the League members before the regular business session. The Lions have promised a program entirely out of the ordinary and one that will be very interesting.

Included in the important business to be transacted is the annual election of officers, postponed from the last meeting. This matter alone should bring out every member who is interested in the progress that the league hopes to make during the coming year.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST
STORIES OF TODAY

A mouse committed deliberate suicide at the Western Union office yesterday and it is vouched for by the manager, Miss Delphia Foster. The little fellow was seen to ramble around the top of a metal waste basket, then take a plunge to the side. The sides of the basket have narrow slits, wide at the top and narrowing down. Mr. Mouse caught his head in such a slit, his weight pulled him down and the further down he traveled the more it shut off his wind until with a gasp, he passed away. The next problem was to do away with the remains. Miss Foster was unequal to the task and delegated it to her assistant, Miss Florence Brown. The latter used a telegram pad and picked up the body and turned it over to the janitor of the building.

PROFITABLE EVENING

Evangelist Reviewed Texts Referring to Resurrection of the Lord

(Contributed)
Last night at Gardner hall proved to be another very enjoyable and profitable evening for the many people who attended. The evangelist reviewed the texts referring to the resurrection of our Lord and the occasions on which He met his sorrowing and discouraged disciples. Mr. Anderson made plain that Jesus had not changed after His resurrection but was the same and is the same, 'Yesterday, today and forever.' In these days of change and uncertainty how good it is to know that our God never changes. He says "I will not alter the thing that has gone out of my mouth." His word stands fast forever and ever. The beautiful song, "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow" followed the sermon.

Tomorrow evening subject will be a deeply spiritual talk, "Mutual surrender: God and Ourselves."

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

A mouse committed deliberate suicide at the Western Union office yesterday and it is vouched for by the manager, Miss Delphia Foster. The little fellow was seen to ramble around the top of a metal waste basket, then take a plunge to the side. The sides of the basket have narrow slits, wide at the top and narrowing down. Mr. Mouse caught his head in such a slit, his weight pulled him down and the further down he traveled the more it shut off his wind until with a gasp, he passed away. The next problem was to do away with the remains. Miss Foster was unequal to the task and delegated it to her assistant, Miss Florence Brown. The latter used a telegram pad and picked up the body and turned it over to the janitor of the building.

PROFITABLE EVENING

Evangelist Reviewed Texts Referring to Resurrection of the Lord

(Contributed)

Last night at Gardner hall proved to be another very enjoyable and profitable evening for the many people who attended. The evangelist reviewed the texts referring to the resurrection of our Lord and the occasions on which He met his sorrowing and discouraged disciples. Mr. Anderson made plain that Jesus had not changed after His resurrection but was the same and is the same. 'Yesterday, today and forever.' In these days of change and uncertainty how good it is to know that our God never changes. He says 'I will not alter the thing that has gone out of my mouth.' His word stands fast forever and ever. The beautiful song, 'Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow' followed the sermon.

Tomorrow evening subject will be a deeply spiritual talk, 'Mutual surrender: God and Ourselves.'

Playing Safe

Noah, building the Ark, was the first great exponent of playing safe. He was playing the safe game—taking no chances. Of course, it might not rain, but the Voice had said it would, and it did—you know the rest.

The best policy of selling coal is—playing safe. We never have, and never will market a coal until it has been thoroughly tested, through actual sales, but once proven, we recommend our coals without reservation.

Consolidation Elkhorn Coal and Zeigler Nut are the best coals we have ever seen or sold, and we have been selling coal for many years. That is a strong statement, but we absolutely stand back of it.

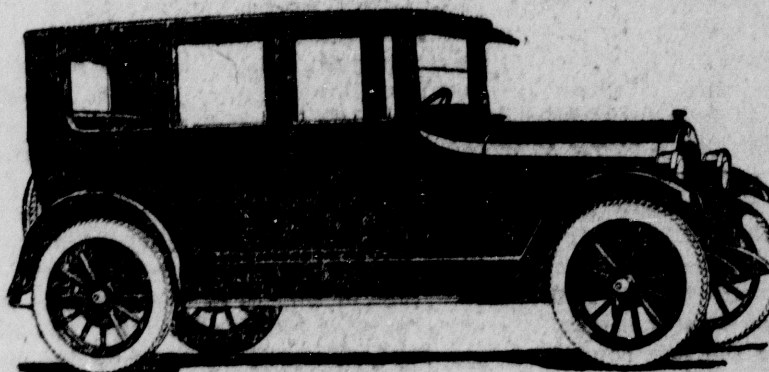

Play the safe game. Place your orders with us for fuel satisfaction.

STARS THAT SHINE IN "THE STICKS"

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 21.—Willie Hoppe, world's billiard champion off and on for seventeen years, is to defend his title in a play-off match next month in Chicago against young Welker Cochran.

Hoppe probably will win because he is better fitted temperamentally to stand the nerve strain resulting from a month's intermission in the play.

Cochran's flighty of nerves, like many youngsters. His youthful susceptibility to mental hazards probably caused him to miff the chance to win the recent championship tournament instead of finishing in a tie.

Cochran defeated Hoppe in one of the early matches of the tournament. The match was not finished until midnight and the youngster said he was so excited that he was unable to sleep that night. He had to play at noon the next day and was defeated by Hagenlacher, the German.

Recently Cochran opened a billiard parlor in Hollywood and he was so busy getting his business underway that he had no time to train or practice for the championship.

Between now and Dec. 16, when the play-off starts in Chicago with the champion, he probably will spend all his time in practice and thinking about Hoppe.

Which will do him no good.

While football is more or less of a timely subject, here's one for the book before it is closed:

King College, Bristol, Tenn.; enrollment 92; football coach, A. C. Adams, Maryland 10; squad 42; eligibility, strict.

Record: In 1922 won seven games and scored 498 without being scored upon.

In six games of this season, Bristol scored 432 points to six. Beat Bluefield 68-0; Tennessee Poly, 75-0; Elon, 55-0; Lenoir, 86-0; East Tennessee Normal, 108-0; Milligan, 40-0.

No big teams on the list, but it is claimed big teams won't take them. Elton Sharpe, a 160-pound back, triple threat, fine kicker and great runner, is the big punch of the team and some judges who have seen him play say that he is one of the finest backs in the country.

Another light that has never been able to shine from rather secluded surroundings is Stockton, of the Gonzaga team.

Eastern critics who saw the West Virginia-Gonzaga games last year said that Stockton was one of the finest football players they had ever seen.

Surroundings have everything to do with the fame that can be won by a football player.

MINNESOTA AFTER MICHIGAN'S SCALP

LAST CHANGE OF MARTINEAU AND EKLUND TO BEAT WOLVERINES

Minneapolis, Nov. 21.—Will Minnesota beat Michigan?

The answer to this question is this: If the better team wins, it will be Minnesota's game.

No one knows better than Bill Spaulding and his assistant coaches in Gopherdom that the better team doesn't always win, especially after it has enjoyed the intoxication of drubbing a net opponent in the way Minnesota put it over on Iowa on the 17th inst.

On form and comparative scores, Minnesota should beat Michigan in one of the closest and hardest fought games of football that can possibly be imagined. Minnesota's backfield and line didn't play better than it knew how on Northrop Field last Saturday in the 29 to 7 victory over Iowa. The team merely realized its full possibilities. If it can rise to the occasion and again do its level best at Ann Arbor, Minnesota will have an undefeated season.

Loss to Michigan of Uteritz and Blott is bringing no rejoicing to the Gopher camp, not only because they regret the injury of those men, but because it is plain that each position has been filled by a player of exceedingly high caliber. The Wolverine team will undoubtedly be at normal strength Nov. 24.

Present indications are, also, that Minnesota will put on the field exactly the same team that won Saturday. It will be the last chance for Captain Earl Martineau or Ray Eklund to take part in a victory over Michigan, a sweet which neither ever tasted. Peterson and Merrill have the same motive, and the rest of the team is just simply out to do Michigan whether they will be troubled to do it again next year or not.

Ho-hum. How dull life does become sometimes.

Spaulding is whittling a set of tent pegs to be used in coralling the ball in case of "ticked" passes, such as Michigan beat Iowa with, or "name it and take it" plays of the kind that beat Wisconsin. In other words, Minnesota is going to keep its eye on the ovoid implement of war, which is just plain football sense after all.

Several hundred rooters will accompany the team to Ann Arbor when it leaves tomorrow.

One handicap the Gophers will be under is that lack of time precludes the development of any new plays to be used vs. the Michigansers.

Michigan, of course, will be in the same boat, and can't be expected to show more than 30 or 40 formations not revealed before this year.

All stories beginning, "Whether Minnesota beats Michigan or not, the Iowa victory has made the 1923 season a success" will be entitled to prompt evisceration if presented anywhere near the Gopher campus. The thing the team needs to assure its proper development is just one more victory, and that's what they're going across the lake to get.

F. W. Luehring, director, and other athletic authorities are delighted over the improved spirit shown by the fact that those who couldn't get tickets last Saturday refrained from "crashing the gate." The football motive, they point out, especially in line play and at the admission gate, is "first come, first served." Minnesota is back to the point where her football is going to command the attention of all amateur sports enthusiasts. Next year, with the stadium up, a much larger share of the broad public demand for seats will be met.

MINNESOTA BASKET TOSSERS WILL PLAY NOTRE DAME DEC. 8

Minneapolis, Nov. 21.—Passing of the football season with the end of this week will center the attention of Minnesota sport fans on hockey, swimming and basketball, the last mentioned standing out more prominently as it has most partisans.

While many of those on whom Dr. L. J. Cooke is depending for victories this winter are still wearing football togs, a resume of the available material indicates that the Gophers will be much stronger on the floor this winter than they were last. The season will open Dec. 8 and 10 with games in Minneapolis against Notre Dame. Minnesota will play Ames at Minnesota Dec. 15 and on Jan. 5 will open the conference season at home, entertaining Illinois.

At least six letter men are expected to be out among them—Cy Olson, guard, Cy Pesek, forward, Frank Lewis, guard, Ray Eklund and Carl Schjoll, forwards or centers, and Becker, center. Carl Lidberg, Don Sinclair and Louis Gross are a trio of football men who will be added to Dr. Cook's charges in basketball.

Some corking new material has come up from last year's freshman squad according to Dr. Cooke, who mentions in this group Rasey, a forward, Gillen, brother of the famous Roney Gillen, Swanbeck, Bourquin, and Frenzel.

Eklund, Schjoll, Sinclair, Lidberg, Gross and Swanbeck are the football men who will not be available for another week or so.

WITH THE BOWLERS

Low scores were prevalent in Monday night's Straightaway league competition. The Ziebell Specials had high score of 2446, taking two games from the Frank & James club of whom only two men showed up on account of the Elks show Monday evening. Hulet's 215 score was high for the evening as was also his 541 three-game total.

The Crow Wing Clouters defeated Smraker's crew three straight games, taking each game by a small margin. The cold facts:

Firpo Said Nothing To Tex About Unfair Treatment While Here

New York, Nov. 21.—Tex Rickard, who promoted the Jack Dempsey-Luis Firpo battle here Sept. 14, today expressed disappointment and disbelief in cable advices to the effect that Firpo, in his native Argentina, had declared he was not honestly beaten by the champion and that a short count on the final knockdown was responsible for Dempsey's being credited with a knockout victory. Rickard said he expected Firpo would come along with a denial of the report.

"He never said anything to me about not being treated fairly in that fight with Dempsey," said the promoter today. "Surely he never intimated that there had been a short count by the referee. The only complaint Firpo made was that Dempsey had stood too close to him after every knockdown and neglected to go to his own corner following the knockdowns. I am inclined to think Luis has been misinterpreted in this latest yarn from the Argentine."

Firpo, it would seem, is continually running into some jam or other. Many boxing sharps think the big Argentinian is being badly advised.

Europe Making Tremendous Preparations for Olympiad

Detroit, Nov. 21.—America's athletic supremacy never has been so seriously challenged as by the "tremendous preparations" all Europe is making for the eighth Olympiad. Major-General Henry T. Allen, vice-president of the American Olympic committee, told delegates to the National Amateur Athletic union convention at their annual dinner here last night.

His address was featured by announcement of a countrywide popular subscription campaign to raise $350,000 to defray the expenses of America's representation to the Olympic games in Paris next July.

"Behind all of this sport is the question of national physical culture, in which the entire country is interested," General Allen said. Statistics of the selective draft in showing such a great percentage of our youth who were incapable of carrying knapsack and rifle under war conditions, were an amazing surprise.

Business Before Sentiment.

"Darling," exclaimed the happy husband after the minister had pronounced the fatal words, "I am not worthy of you." "Of course you are not," she replied; "but after a girl has celebrated her twenty-fifth birthday for five consecutive years she can't afford to be too particular."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

He defies anyone to equal his feats of strength and skill.

ROTATING STOCK COMPANY

Lewis Frazee's Company in "Mamma's Affair" at New Park Theatre

(Carlton Miles in the Minneapolis Journal)

Lewis Frazee has organized a rotating stock company that will visit nearly a score of towns in Minnesota and the Dakotas. The company will swing around the circuit offering a new bill at regular intervals this season. The company has been recruited here and includes several well known professionals. The first play to be presented will be R. Barton Butlers amusing comedy "Mamma's Affair." Such a venture as this will bring to the smaller communities the type of play they seldom see at present, the one night stand company having practically disappeared in the middle west.

This vehicle was presented in the movies with Constance Talmadge starring, and was considered one of her best pictures. Georgia Slater will play the part which was portrayed by Miss Talmadge. Miss Slater is known as "The Girl with the Radio Voice," she has been the reader of the Bed-time Stories over W L A G broadcasting station for the past year and her voice will be familiar to many in the audience. "Mamma's Affair" will be presented here at the New Park theatre on Friday, Nov. 23rd.

A Word to the Wise

"In March I was called to the bedside of my sister in Brewton, Alabama. She was given up to die and was almost dead. Talked in a whisper. Doctors said nothing but an operation would save her and she was too weak for that. Her color was yellow as a pumpkin and she was filled with gas. That day I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and went and got a bottle for her. In three weeks she was able to be about and walked a mile to church. I am praising your medicine to everyone." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. WASH YOUR KIDNEYS BY DRINKING WATER

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacist here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. —Adv.

The thing the team needs to assure its proper development is just one more victory, and that's what they're going across the lake to get.

F. W. Luehring, director, and other athletic authorities are delighted over the improved spirit shown by the fact that those who couldn't get tickets last Saturday refrained from "crashing the gate." The football motive, they point out, especially in line play and at the admission gate, is "first come, first served." Minnesota is back to the point where her football is going to command the attention of all amateur sports enthusiasts. Next year, with the stadium up, a much larger share of the broad public demand for seats will be met.

MINNESOTA BASKET TOSSERS WILL PLAY NOTRE DAME DEC. 8

Minneapolis, Nov. 21.—Passing of the football season with the end of this week will center the attention of Minnesota sport fans on hockey, swimming and basketball, the last mentioned standing out more prominently as it has most partisans.

While many of those on whom Dr. L. J. Cooke is depending for victories this winter are still wearing football togs, a resume of the available material indicates that the Gophers will be much stronger on the floor this winter than they were last. The season will open Dec. 8 and 10 with games in Minneapolis against Notre Dame. Minnesota will play Ames at Minnesota Dec. 15 and on Jan. 5 will open the conference season at home, entertaining Illinois.

At least six letter men are expected to be out among them—Cy Olson, guard, Cy Pesek, forward, Frank Lewis, guard, Ray Eklund and Carl Schjoll, forwards or centers, and Becker, center. Carl Lidberg, Don Sinclair and Louis Gross are a trio of football men who will be added to Dr. Cooke's charges in basketball.

Some corking new material has come up from last year's freshman squad according to Dr. Cooke, who mentions in this group Rasey, a forward, Gillen, brother of the famous Rondo Gillon, Swanbeck, Bourquin, and Frenzel.

Eklund, Schjoll, Sinclair, Lidberg, Gross and Swanbeck are the football men who will not be available for another week or so.

WITH THE BOWLERS

Low scores were prevalent in Monday night's Straightaway league competition. The Ziebell Specials had high score of 2446, taking two games from the Frank & James club of whom only two men showed up on account of the Elks show Monday evening. Hulet's 215 score was high for the evening as was also his 541 three-game total.

The Crow Wing Clouters defeated Smraker's crew three straight games, taking each game by a small margin. The cold facts:

Firpo Said Nothing To Tex About Unfair Treatment While Here

New York, Nov. 21.—Tex Rickard, who promoted the Jack Dempsey-Luis Firpo battle here Sept. 14, today expressed disappointment and disbelief in cable advices to the effect that Firpo, in his native Argentina, had declared he was not honestly beaten by the champion and that a short count on the final knockdown was responsible for Dempsey's being credited with a knockout victory. Rickard said he expected Firpo would come along with a denial of the report.

"He never said anything to me about not being treated fairly in that fight with Dempsey," said the promoter today. "Surely he never intimated that there had been a short count by the referee. The only complaint Firpo made was that Dempsey had stood too close to him after every knockdown and neglected to go to his own corner following the knockdowns. I am inclined to think Luis has been misinterpreted in this latest yarn from the Argentine."

Firpo, it would seem, is continually running into some jam or other. Many boxing sharps think the big Argentinian is being badly advised.

Europe Making Tremendous Preparations for Olympiad

Detroit, Nov. 21.—America's athletic supremacy never has been so seriously challenged as by the "tremendous preparations" all Europe is making for the eighth Olympiad. Major-General Henry T. Allen, vice-president of the American Olympic committee, told delegates to the National Amateur Athletic union convention at their annual dinner here last night.

His address was featured by announcement of a countrywide popular subscription campaign to raise $350,000 to defray the expenses of America's representation to the Olympic games in Paris next July.

"Behind all of this sport is the question of national physical culture, in which the entire country is interested," General Allen said. Statistics of the selective draft in showing such a great percentage of our youth who were incapable of carrying knapsack and rifle under war conditions, were an amazing surprise.

The question of sport and participation in national and international contests is therefore a patriotic one.

"The games of the Eighth Olympiad will be the most hotly contested of any ever held in this historic competition. The prowess of American athletes will be tested as never before. It, therefore, becomes a matter of American pride to leave nothing undone to encourage the best selection of contestants and provide proper transportation and conditions for them."

Business Before Sentiment.

"Darling," exclaimed the happy husband after the minister had pronounced the fatal words, "I am not worthy of you." "Of course you are not," she replied; "but after a girl has celebrated her twenty-fifth birthday for five consecutive years she can't afford to be too particular."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

AMUSEMENTS

Two Vaudeville Acts With Special Picture at New Park Tonight and Thursday

The New Park will present two high class vaudeville acts in conjunction with the special picture "Jazzmania" tonight and Thursday at regular prices. Babe Williams' soprano singing all late and popular ballads and Carl Stengel, who balances ploughs, wheelbarrows, tables, lawn mowers and other heavy paraphernalia on his chin and forehead. He defies anyone to equal his feats of strength and skill.

ROTATING STOCK COMPANY

Lewis Frazee's Company in "Mamma's Affair" at New Park Theatre

(Carlton Miles in the Minneapolis Journal)

Lewis Frazee has organized a rotating stock company that will visit nearly a score of towns in Minnesota and the Dakotas. The company will swing around the circuit offering a new bill at regular intervals this season. The company has been recruited here and includes several well known professionals. The first play to be presented will be "Mamma's Affair," amusing comedy as this will bring to the smaller communities the type of play they seldom see at present, the one night stand company having practically disappeared in the middle west.

This vehicle was presented in the movies with Constance Talmadge starring, and was considered one of her best pictures. Georgia Slater will play the part which was portrayed by Miss Talmadge. Miss Slater is known as "The Girl with the Radio Voice," she has been the reader of the Bed-time Stories over W L A G broadcasting station for the past year and her voice will be familiar to many in the audience. "Mamma's Affair" will be presented here at the New Park theatre on Friday, Nov. 23rd.

New Giant Outfielder

Billy Southworth, formerly captain and right fielder of the Boston Braves, who came to the New York Giants in the swap which sent Dave Bancroft, star shortstop and captain of the Giants, to Boston. Southworth is a heavy hitter and considered one of the star outfielders of the league.

Song and Play Are Combined in Film

Vitagraph has again done the unusual in an attractive adaptation of both a song and a story—each one a classic—to the screen. "My Wild Irish Rose," which will be shown at Lyceum tonight and Thursday, slips the sweetness from both Chauncey Olcott's song, and Dion Boucicault's famous stage success, "The Shaughraun."

A Word to the Wise

"In March I was called to the bedside of my sister in Brewton, Alabama. She was given up to die and was almost dead. Talked in a whisper. Doctors said nothing but an operation would save her and she was too weak for that. Her color was yellow as a pumpkin and she was filled with gas. That day I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and went and got a bottle for her. In three weeks she was able to be about and walked a mile to church. I am praising your medicine to everyone." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and leading druggists in every town.—Advt.

WASH YOUR KIDNEYS BY DRINKING WATER

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacist here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. —Advt.
